

Game over?

The LBC project is coming to an end

Two full, intense years Let's look at numbers

1 Moodle platform created 4 training modules developed 3 competitions held in 3 countries with the involvement of over 100 students and teachers 1 publication published

1 website constantly updated and 50 News published with over 1,300 people reached 2 social media channels created with 204 likes and 120 posts published approximately 7,300 people reached through partner social media channels 5 newsletters sent to over 50,000 contacts 5 multiplier events with the participation of over 90 people

No, the Game continues...

Even though the project is officially coming to an end, partners are committed to continue disseminating the model and the concept of the project and to seek further funding or opportunities to sustain our good work.
